REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With regards to claim 1, the prior art fails to teach or suggest a first layer made of a stress fracture resistant material, wherein the first layer is translucent, and wherein the first layer forms an outer layer of the plastic body, thereby forming a skin, a second layer, connected to said first layer and made of a plastic material which exhibits a lower resistance to stress fractures than said first plastic material, wherein the stress fracture resistant material of the first layer is semi-crystalline, wherein said first layer is thinner than the second layer and wherein the plastic material of the second layer exhibits a combination of a greater transparency to light from the visual spectrum, a greater mechanical stability, a greater dimensional stability and a lower permeability than the stress fracture resistant material of the first layer.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
